AFTER A SUPER BOWL CELEBRATION IN DOWNTOWN KANSAS CITY SHOTS WERE FIRED AT ATTENDEES. 21 WERE INJURED, 11 OF THEM CHILDREN. THERE WAS A STRONG POLICE PRESENCE AT THE EVENT BUT ACCORDING TO KANSAS CITY POLICE CHIEF STACEY GRAVES, THIS HAPPENED BECAUSE OF “BAD ACTORS.” GRAVES SPOKE AT A PRESS CONFERENCE FOLLOWING THE INCIDENT.

{SOT: Stacey Graves}

“At the conclusion of the chiefs rally today there were shots fired on the west side of union Station. Immediately officers responded to the area, took two people into custody, and also immediately rendered life sustaining aid to those victims.”

Mobile phone video of suspect being tackled.

THE SHOOTER WAS TAKEN DOWN BY EYEWITNESSES, POLICE TOOK THE SUSPECT AWAY SOMETIME AFTER THIS. ONE OF THE MEN RESPONSIBLE FOR KEEPING THE SHOOTER PINNED DOWN PAUL CONTRERAS WAS THERE WITH HIS THREE DAUGHTERS. HE JUMPED INTO ACTION AND AFTER HIS FIRST THOUGHTS WERE THE SAFETY OF HIS DAUGHTERS. ONE OF HIS DAUGHTERS WAS RIGHT NEXT TO HIM AND SAW THESE EVENTS UNFOLD.

“Next thing I know my little sister and my older sister just take off. It just shows how much gun violence is tearing apart our world and our communities, whether its schools, grocery stores, even parades. It’s just sad that you have to put things like this in the back of your mind, that there is a chance it could happen.”
